PATROL SQUADRON FORTY-FIVE

KEFLAVIK DEPLOYMENT 17 September 93 to 10 March 1994

Fight to Fly - Fly to Fight

FIGHT TO WIN!

Commanding Officer

R. W. ELLIOTT

Commander Elliott is a native of Lubbock, Texas. He attended the University of Texas at El Paso, graduating with a Bachelor of Arts degree in English Literature and Philosophy.

In August 1975, he reported to Aviation Officer Candidate School and was commissioned an Ensign in December 1975. Upon completion of flight training in December 1976, he was designated a Naval Aviator.

In July 1977 after completion of P-3 FRS Training with Patrol Squadron THIRTY (VP-30), Commander Elliott joined Patrol Squadron SIXTEEN (VP-16) at NAS Jacksonville, Florida. He served as Paraloft Branch Officer, Aircraft Division Officer and Pilot NATOPS Officer, completing one deployment to Keflavik, Iceland and two deployments to Sigonella, Sicily. While attached to Patrol Squadron Sixteen he qualified as Patrol Plane Commander, Instructor Pilot, Mission Commander and Special Projects "Bear Trap" Pilot.

In November 1980 Commander Elliott reported to Patrol Squadron THIRTY (VP-309) as an Instructor Pilot. He served as Powerplants Branch Officer, Aircraft Division Officer and Pilot Training Officer.

Subsequently, Commander Elliott received orders to report as Aide/Flag Lieutenant to the Commander Middle East forces homeported in Bahrain. He deployed with the staff throughout the Red Sea and Persian Gulf during the Iran-Iraq war, rotating flagships from the USS Lasalle, Luce, John Hancock and Texas.

In March 1985, commander Elliott commenced studies at the Naval War college in Newport, Rhode Island, receiving Masters of Arts degrees in National Security and Strategic Studies as well as in Business Management from Salve Regina College. He then reported to the staff of Commander, Patrol Wing ELEVEN (CPW-11) as the Safety Officer and Officer in Charge of the first Mobile Operations Command Center (MOCC) detachment.

In June 1988, Commander Elliott reported to Patrol Squadron FIFTY-SIX (VP-56) and deployed to Sigonella, Sicily. While a "Dragon", he served as Training Officer, Officer in Charge, Detachment Norway, Operations Officer and CTG 67.1 Operations Officer.

In October 1989 Commander Elliott reported to Patrol Squadron THIRTY (VP-30) as the Training Officer and in March 1991 he transferred to Commander, Patrol Wing ELEVEN (CPW-11) serving as Operations Officer and in April 1992 he reported to Patrol Squadron FORTY-FIVE (VP-45) as the Executive Officer.

Commander Elliott's personal awards include the Meritorious Service Medal, the Navy Commendation Medal (two awards), Navy Achievement Medal (two awards) and various other unit and service awards. He is married to the former Deborah A. Hoffman of Atlanta, Georgia. They reside in Orange Park with daughter Jennifer, son Matthew and new arrival Lauren Ashby.

"Alright boys, make sure she's got a full tank when you bring her back"

EXECUTIVE OFFICER

D. W. STEVENS

Commander Stevens is a native of Waverly, Iowa. Upon completion of two years in the U.S. Army, he attended the University of Northern Iowa graduating in June 1976, with a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Accounting.

In July 1976, he attended Aviation Officer Candidate School in Pensacola, Florida, and was commissioned an Ensign in November 1976. He was designated a Naval Flight Officer in 1978.

In September 1978, after competition of Fleet Replacement Squadron THIRTY-ONE, (VP-31), at Moffett Field, California, Commander Stevens was assigned to Patrol Squadron FORTY (VP-40). He served as Human Resources Officer, Communication Officer, Avionics and Armament Division Officer and NFO Training Officer. He deployed to Kadena and Misawa, Japan and Adak, Alaska.

In December 1981, Commander Stevens reported to the Naval Postgraduate School in Monterey, California and received a Master of Science Degree in Financial Management in June 1983.

Commander Stevens' next tour of duty was with the Cost Analysis Division of Naval Air Systems Command in Washington, DC. He served as the cost analyst for the P-3 Program and was selected to be the Senior Cost Analyst for the CV ASW Helicopter Source selection team.

In June 1987, Commander Stevens reported to USS ENTERPRISE (CVN-65) at NAS Alameda, California, serving in the Operations Department. He deployed with the USS ENTERPRISE in 1988, for a seven month around the world cruise as the Assistant Combat Direction Center Officer, earning Tactical Action Officer (TAO) qualification.

In December 1989, he attended Armed Forces Staff College in Norfolk, Virginia, graduating in June 1990.

Commander Stevens reported to Patrol Squadron NINE (VP-9) in March 1991, serving as Assistant Maintenance Officer and Operations Officer. During his tour, VP-9 deployed to Misawa, Japan, and was awarded the Battle "E" for operational excellence. Upon tour completion, he reported to NAS Moffett Field as Base Comptroller.

In September 1991, Commander Stevens reported to the office of the Comptroller of the Navy in Washington, DC, as Congressional Liaison for the Appropriation Subcommittee on Defense.

In April 1993, Commander Stevens reported as Executive Officer of Patrol Squadron FORTY-FIVE (VP-45).

Commander Stevens' personal awards include the Meritorious Service Medal, Navy Commendation Medal (with two gold stars) and various other unit and general service awards.

Commander Stevens is married to the former Barbara Bickle of Central City, Iowa. They have three children; Troy, Becky, and David.

"XO VP-45, this is a nonsecure line, may I help you please?"

XO, the Lone Survivor of Burns Supper.

COMMAND MASTER CHIEF

AVCM R. A. HAGER

AVCM R. August Hager began his naval career in December 1966, by his enlistment in the Delayed Entry Program. He reported to boot camp in San Diego, California April 1967, from Wiesbaden, West Germany, where his father, a career Air Force Chief Master Sergeant, was stationed. After attending AT "A" School at NATTC Memphis, he served his first duty assignment with the "Hellrazors" of VA-174 at NAS Cecil Field as an electronics maintenance technician on A-7A, A-7B, and A-7E model aircraft. He next joined the "Clansmen" of VA-46 and made a Mediterranean cruise onboard the USS JOHN F. KENNEDY (CV-67). It was during this cruise, precipitated by the 1970 Jordanian Crisis, that he first reenlisted in Valetta, Malta, for orders to AVIC "B" School. At the conclusion of "B" School at Memphis, he was accepted for duty involving flight and reported to Inflight Technician Training at VP-30, Patuxent River.

In August 1972, Master Chief Hager reported to VP-45 at NAS Jacksonville and completed the first P-3 "Charlie" deployment to Sigonella in October 1973. Following deployment to Keflavik in 1974, he received orders to CTF-67 Detachment Rota and became a "Plank Owner" at Tactical Support Center (now ASWOC), Rota, Spain. In May 1978, he reported to the "Batcave" of VP-24 at NAS Jacksonville where he remained on sea duty for seven and a half years, making two deployments to Sigonella, two deployments to Bermuda, and one each to Keflavik and Rota-Lajes. After an abbreviated tour of shore duty in VP-30, he returned to the "Pelican's Nest" in April 1988 and assumed the duties of Command Master Chief.

Master Chief Hager's personal awards and ribbons include the Navy Commendation Medal, Navy Achievement Medal, Joint Meritorious Unit Award, Meritorious Unit Commendation with three bronze stars, United States Coast Guard Meritorious Unit Commendation with Operational Device, Battle "E" Award, Good Conduct with four bronze stars, Navy Expeditionary Medal, National Defense Service Medal, Humanitarian Service Medal, Sea Service Deployment Ribbon with silver star, Navy and Marine Corps Overseas Service Ribbon and the Special Operations Service Ribbon.

Master Chief Hager and his wife, the former Rosemary Vonderhaar of Montgomery, Alabama, have two incomes, no children, and reside in Orange Park with their Daschund Fritz.

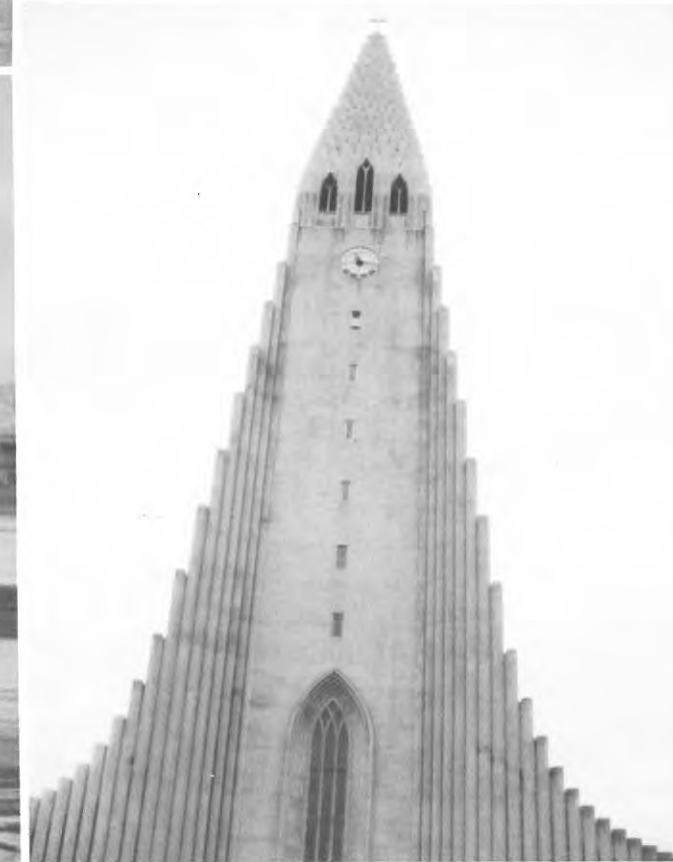

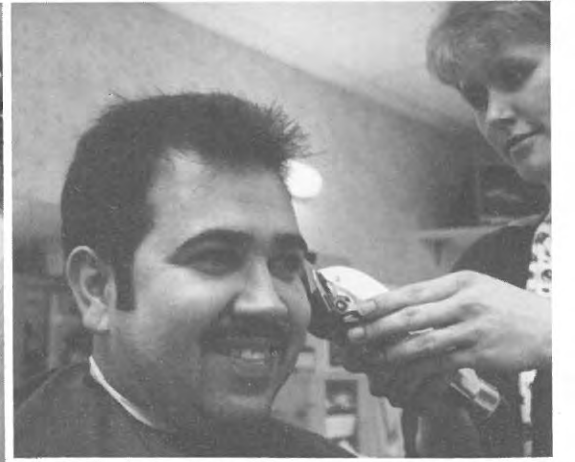

Master Chief hard at work, as usual.

"Don't hate me because I'm beautiful."
